A passing mark will be determined based on attendance and successful completion of the course activities. Absenteeism of over 20% may result in a student being barred from the class. There is no Final Exam scheduled for CP0101.

The Academic Upgrading Department is an adult education environment. As such, you are expected to show respect for one another, faculty and staff.

In addition to the "Student Rights and Responsibilities" as set out in the GPRC Calendar, the following guidelines will allow us to have an effective learning environment for everyone. Since some activities are disruptive to learning, I ask that you comply with the following:

You are expected to:

Although 50% is considered a pass in most courses, research and experience indicate that future academic success requires higher standards. Therefore, in Academic Upgrading, we strongly recommend that you achieve 60% or better so that you will be admitted to and be successful in your post-secondary program.
